

Hey Bryce + Megan,

I got home yesterday afternoon. South Africa is an awesome place and the race was fantastic! The pack and the Quickdraws were the perfect combo. ... It was super comfortable considering I started with 20-pounds and it adapted nicely to the weight loss along the days. The hip pockets were terrific for my mini-digital camera, lip stuff and Endurolytes, ...all worked like a dream.

The course was beautiful, lots of rocky riverbeds and sandy single track - as well as a bunch of dirt 4x4 tracks. A nice combo. The surrounding rock formations were super neat. I won the women's division and finished 2nd overall. It was a good race.

THANKS AGAIN BIG TIME!!! FOR ALL YOUR HELP. YOU GUYS WERE CRITICAL IN MY RACE PERFORMANCE. SO VERY APPRECIATED!

All best,

Stefani
